Introductory Tours (Getting to Know Us)

Introductory Combo Tour

This 7 hour introductory tour of Manhattan, offers the first-time visitor who would like a private and personal introduction or orientation to New York City, the best of our private walking tours and our tours with full transportation. It is a classic first day of a visit that may extend over several days.

Your personal, licensed New York City guide will meet you at your hotel. You and your guests will then tour Manhattan by private van or SUV with private driver, taking in most of midtown and lower Manhattan of the in a four-hour period. Your guide will make as many with appropriate impromptu stops along the way as feasible for you to get out of your vehicle and see the sights closer at hand. Among the sights in the tour will be Greenwich Village and SoHo, Little Italy and Chinatown, Tribeca, the financial district, South Street Seaport, the U.N. complex, Central Park and Lincoln Center. Or choose to tour uptown Manhattan including Central Park, Harlem, the Cathedral of St. John the Divine and Museum Mile, then continue the tour in midtown or lower Manhattan.

After your lunch break, continue on your tour with your guide on foot and/or by subway to other parts of Manhattan. Your guide will help you learn to use the city with confidence during your visit.

The tour includes:

- a 4 hour private tour of Manhattan with full private transportation including driver and personal, licensed New York City tour guide, taxes and driver gratuity..
