Introductory Tours (Getting to Know Us)

First Day in New York – A Walking Tour

Master New York like a native! Our 3½ hour introductory walking tour of Manhattan is designed for the first-time visitor who would like a personal introduction or orientation to New York City for a visit that extends over several days.

Learn the ins and outs of the city on a walking tour with your personal licensed New York tour guide, as you visit Central Park, Rockefeller Center and Times Square among sights in midtown Manhattan; find places you will want call your own in Greenwich Village; or take in historic lower Manhattan and the financial district. Your guide helps you make the most of your visit on your first day and the rest of your stay in New York. Travel the city with confidence like a New Yorker using your MetroCard®, and have the CityPass® at your disposal during your visit.

The tour includes:

- a 3½ hour private walking tour with your personal, licensed New York City tour guide.
- a CityPass® admission ticket booklet to six of New York's top attractions for each guest.
- one unlimited ride MetroCard® (subway and bus pass) for each guest to use during the tour and six additional days.
